Sir,

In submitting herewith copy of the resolution of the Chitaldrug District Board recorded at their meeting held on the 26th February '08 for the information of Government, I have the honor to state that the total income of the Naikanhatti Union in the Chaliakere Taluk, is more than Rs 1100/- a year, and that the work there is comparatively heavier than that of the other Unions in the District. Considering the smallness of the pay of the Amildar at at Naikanhatti for the work required of him and also the rise of prices of food grains in the District, the Union panchayet have proposed that his pay may be raised from Rs 6 to 8 per mensem, so that it may be in keeping with the pay of the Mutsaddies in other Unions of this District. The District Board accordingly support the recommendation of the panchayet. I, therefore beg that Government may be kindly pleased to accord sanction to this proposal, the increased cost viz Rs 24 being met from the provision made in the current year's District Fund Budget under the head "C VI Conservancy and Sanitary Charges."

I have the honor to be,
Sir
